

One day in the Antarctica a polar bear was hunting.

Then a CAPLOOSH!!! and SPLASH!!!!!! a whale came out of the ocean. It was a very big whale. Then the polar bear jumped onto the whale. The whale got splashed onto the land. Then the polar bear ate the whale. Then the polar bear saw a fish. You know how polar bears like fish. Along came a fox who liked fish more. The polar bear chased the fox but the fox said, "Wait, we can share the fish" so they did.
