

The Voyage (that stunk!)

I was at port when suddenly a map flew out of the air and landed in my hands. I looked at it in astonishment. It had mermaids, ships, pirates, sea monsters, and even treasure!

I needed a way to find the treasure. I walked around looking for people who had a ship. I saw a man who looked like a ship's captain. So I pestered him until he said, "YES, alright. I'll take you if you will be QUIET!"

The next day we set sail on a puny ship. We couldn't go very far. We had to land on a small deserted island. There were coconuts, sand, and mermaids. They smelled like fish and had missing teeth. Then a coconut hit me on the head, I got sand in my eyes (aaaahh!!!!) a crab pinched me, and we didn't find any treasure.

So much for our voyage!!