

My Dog Lady

One day a man was driving home from work. He saw a dog in a kennel. He was worried about the dog being all alone and he got out of his car. He went to the front door and knocked on the door. The owners of the dog opened the door and the man said "I'll give you one hundred dollars for the dog" and the owners didn't look like they really wanted the dog and they said "Yes". This made the man sad, but he was happy he got the dog away from them. He put the dog in his car and drove home.

When he got home he told his daughter "I got a dog" and that made his daughter very happy. The daughter asked her dad if the dog was a boy or a girl and he said "Girl". Then his daughter asked "What are these white marks on her paw" and the man said "Um I think those are rope marks". The the man was really disappointed that the owners abused this innocent dog. Then the man thought of a name for the dog and called her Lady. The man told his daughter, and she like it.

Then two weeks went by and Lady was happier now than she was with her original owners. But that day the man told his daughter that Lady can't stay because their other dog didn't get along with Lady. The girl was really sad but she knew that she couldn't take care of Lady. So the man took a picture of Lady and put that picture online.

A nice woman was looking for a dog for her daughter's birthday. The woman found Lady and read her story and loved the dog already! They travelled down to Massachusetts, and pick her up from the man. The woman and her family were really happy! The family changed the dogs name to Dollie, because the daughter liked that name better. One day the woman accidentally called her Lady. The dog got really happy and wagged her tail. The woman said "I think she likes her old name better!"

The family loves Lady and Lady loves them. I know this because my family is the family that adopted her. We have had her for over a year and I still think about where she came from. I think she likes her new home! I love my dog Lady!