

Robert Roche – Literary Achievement 2019

My Summer Vacation at Lubec

Last summer me and my family went up to northern Maine to a small town called Lubec. We walked down to the beach, me and my dad played baseball, and we raced around two trees being timed. We went up to Canada and went out to eat at a restaurant. We saw a bunch of beautiful things like a bald eagle but the most beautiful thing of all was being with my family.