

SCHOOL COMMITTEE LEGAL STATUS

State law provides that public schools will be operated and maintained by local school committees. As agents of the state government, school committees are required to carry out state laws pertaining to public education, and the policies and regulations of the State Board of Education.