

SUPPORT STAFF PROBATION AND TENURE

Each employee of the District shall serve a probationary period of one year (12 months) in any position for which he/ she is hired or in any new position to which he/she is promoted. During that time, evaluation of the employee's performance shall be conducted.

When serving the probationary period in a position to which he/she has been raised from another classification, an employee shall retain the right to return to his/her former classification as a permanent employee.

Whenever a new employment occurs, the new employee must complete the probationary period before retaining any rights to employee leaves and holidays.
